Getting Cultured

August 2016

You know what they say - “You learn something new every day.” Residents did just that recently on their trip to the Acadian Cultural Center in Lafayette. The museum is dedicated to telling the story of the Acadian people from origin to modern day. Residents had a great time learning and exploring at the cultural center.

Here, Piggy Piggy

We celebrated National Pig Calling Day by having our very own pig calling contest at Eastridge Nursing & Rehabilitation! Participants let out their best call, and everyone had a blast hearing everyone’s individual take on pig calling. Congratulations to our winner, Ms. Florine Gamble!

Sweet Summertime Social

Last month, Eastridge celebrated summertime with a Watermelon Social. We enjoyed the favorite summer fruit and even held our own watermelon seed spitting contest. Ms. Florine Gamble was our winner with an impressive 13 feet!
